Dear Mr. Steelman:

I feel it a great honour to have received from you a very warm message of congratulation on my being awarded the Nobel Prize for physics of this year. Since I came to the United States in September last year, I have been very much impressed by kindness of all Americans, whom we met, including not only scientists, but also people of various occupations. On this occasion, please allow me to express my hearty thanks to you and all Americans, who were so friendly to us Japanese, in spite of our serious mistake in the past.

I feel myself indeed very happy to be able to continue my research in the United States, where the progress of science is so remarkable and where the scientists can enjoy the freedom of research irrespective of race and creed.

Yours very sincerely,

Hideld Yukawa
